How To Make the Most of Your Summer Getaway: 3 Tips For A Stress Free Retreat.

Preparing for the perfect summer holiday can be a stressful process. From shopping for airline tickets to managing your finances there's a lot to consider. Here are 3 pro tips to help make travelling this season a breeze!

1. Make transferring funds a walk in the park.

Waiting in line to exchange money after you've been sitting for a small eternity isn't an ideal start to any vacation. Your bags are heavy, you're tired and the last thing you want to think about is exchange rates. That's why we created TransferWise. Our international money transfer feature that allows you to exchange money in up to nineteen different currencies in real time (and in less than 2 business days). Oh, and did we mention the no hidden fees part?

In the age of smartphones, the world is at your fingertips -- why shouldn't access to nineteen currencies be too? Time is money, and the less time you spend worrying about how to access money in the country you're visiting means more time exploring it.

Sit back, relax and download TransferWise, so that your only worry upon arrival is which beautiful city park you'll be visiting first.

2. The only “overdraft” you should be worried about is the excess foam in the beer you just ordered.

Life moves pretty fast when you're on holiday and exploring all the wonders a new city has to offer. That's why N26 offers overdraft protection.

The feature allows you to customize your very own overdraft limits - granting you the power to dictate and adjust your finances on your own terms. It also sends you notifications when your balance is getting low, helping you stay focused on what really matters - beer. Cheers to being covered and letting someone else worry about the hard stuff.

3. Spend time splitting dessert, not the bill.

There's nothing better than travelling alongside your trusted companions. And when you have a day's worth of exploring to discuss, the last thing you want to think about after a delicious meal is who's paying for it.

With the N26 feature, MoneyBeam, you don't have to. The do-it-for-you feature allows you to request or send money to any one of your contacts instantaneously - because we believe dinner with friends should be about collecting memories not money.

The season for relaxation and exploration is upon us. Let us be the reason you get a little more time for both. Summer on, friends!
